1. [ ] James Gehrig, on the staff of the Senate Space Committee, called to ask who he could refer someone to on the subject of machine translation from Chinese into English. Apparently a senator has queried Gehrig about this and he wants to provide the name and address of the appropriate person and agency. I told him I would look into this and be in touch with him.

3. [ ] Hand carried to William Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, a copy of the Director's prepared statement to the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy on "threshold" countries and the Non-Proliferation Treaty for his review.

I provided Woodruff with a copy of the Director's response to Senator Strom Thurmond's (R., S. Car.) inquiry regarding the Agency's function in deliberations on the Non-Proliferation Treaty.

12. [REDACTED] In response to his inquiry as to the proper person or agency to speak with Senator Len B. Jordan (R., Idaho) on the subject of the Non-Proliferation Treaty (particularly the possibility of detecting Soviet cheating), I suggested to James Gehrig, of the Senate Space Committee staff, that he contact Mr. Mel Christopher, Legislative Officer for the Arms Control Disarmament Agency. (Mr. Duckett had previously discussed this with Dr. Scoville of ACDA.)

12. [ ] At his request, I met with James Gehrig, Chief Counsel, Senate Space Committee, who said he had been queried by Senator Len B. Jordan (R., Idaho) on some of the details involved in the nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty. Senator Jordan is apparently interested in knowing how any cheating by the Soviets can be detected under the terms of this treaty. Gehrig seemed rather confused by this and tended to jumble the Test Ban Treaty with the Non-Proliferation Treaty in this regard. Gehrig wanted my advice as to who would be in the best position to discuss this with Senator Jordan. I told Gehrig my offhand reaction was that the State Department or ACDA could be responsive in this field but that I would check on it and be in touch with him.

2.  Met with William Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, and reviewed with him topics of the Director's briefing of the combined CIA Subcommittees on Friday. Woodruff said this should be considered as a world roundup-type briefing but thought emphasis should be placed on the situation in the Middle East and the Berlin problem. He said the Director should also be prepared to discussed threshold countries, the Non-Proliferation Treaty, the Agency's role in the Pueblo operation and the subject of missiles in Cuba.
